GLOBE INN,

YORK STREET, NEAR THE DIAMOND,
GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

THE undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known Hotel, the "Globe Inn," in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table will have the best the market can afford—his chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of wines and liquors. There is large stabling attached to the Hotel, which will be attended by attentive ostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, ranking his house as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public's patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large part of it. Remember, the "Globe Inn" is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square.

THE
OR CHICKEN POWDERS.
[Copyright Secured.]
A CERTAIN CURE FOR
GAPES IN CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.

Will prevent and cure CHICKEN CHOLERA, and other Diseases common to Poultry, and will promote an increase of Fat.
Full Directions accompany each Package.
PRICE 25 CENTS.

THE annexed are a few of the certificates we have received in proof of the great value and efficacy of the Poulterers' Friend:

CARROLLTON, Baltimore co., Md., December 16th, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gentlemen:—I have used your "Poulterers' Friend" upon a brood of young chickens that had the gapes, and am happy to say, that by the use of a few doses they were entirely cured. It will certainly cure the gapes when used according to directions.
Yours, &c., GEO. HARMAN.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 7th, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworty & Co.:
Gentlemen:—I have sold all the "Poulterers' Friend" I received from you last August. The poultry in the surrounding country was dying very fast with "Cholera." I recommended your "Poulterers' Friend," and as far as I could learn, it has proven a cure for the disease.
Respectfully, W. R. GOODMAN.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 2d, 1868.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gentlemen:—My chickens were dying very fast with what my neighbors called "Chicken Cholera." I was induced to try your "Poulterers' Friend," and it worked like a charm. I gave it as directed, and it cured those that were then sick, and I have not seen any symptoms of the disease since. —Yours, &c.,
B. MENCKEN, Cross & Warner Sts.

JEFFERSON, Frederick co., Md., July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co., Baltimore:
Gentlemen: The wonderful cures which have been made by your "Poulterers' Friend" can not fail to interest all who raise Poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your "Poulterers' Friend," according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in destroying the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had much calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of inestimable value to all who raise Poultry.
Respectfully, A. SPENCER.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES
FOR ALL DISEASES OF
THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters,

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The Bitters, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, HEADACHE, PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is from the purest ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, Induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the eye is tinged is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into the frame, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

"I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL."

Midsummer is fair, with its golden sheaf
And the pomp of its hollyhocks;
But O for the May-time, happy and brief,
For the folded velvet of the leaf,
For the lane as white as a moonlit reef,
And the fresh roses on the rocks!

It is then that the book-worm quits his book,
The snail creeps out from his shell,
And the violet burns in the greeping nook,
And life keeps time to the lute of the brook,
And our dreams are tinged with the colors they took,
From the tulip's rainbow bell!

"HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF."—It has often been said that history repeats itself, and that one may find a parallel for any condition of the state or the nation by consulting the records of history. The same may be said of the fashions. They are constantly repeating themselves. Our grandmothers can tell of a time in their youth when the fashion of wearing the hair was almost precisely similar to that of the present day. Hoops were worn hundreds of years ago, while the high heels to be found on the shoes of nine out of ten of the women of the present day are not a novelty by any means. We remember the time when tight pantaloons were all the rage—the tighter the better.—The latest indications from England concerning the fashions are that black dress coats are going out; and that blue coats with brass buttons, the same as those in which our fathers and grandfathers courted our mothers and grandmothers, are coming into fashion. Hunt up your blue coats with brass buttons—they are again the agony.

THE WILLOW WHISTLE.—The pleasant spring weather we are now enjoying, will set the sap to circulating, and prepare the chestnut and the willow for whistles. The boys will soon be at it, and we shall have the shrill sound piercing our ears from every direction. We love to think of those things with which we beguiled many an hour in happy childhood sport. Holmes, in the Atlantic Almanac, says: "Who does not love to make a willow whistle, or to see one made? Can you not recall your first lesson in the art—the cutting of the flexible bough, the choosing a smooth part, passing the knife around it, above and below, pounding it judiciously, wringing it earnestly, and feeling the hollow cylinder of bark at last slipping on the sappy, ivory white, fragrant wood? The little plaything grew, with the growth of art and civilization, to be the great organ which thunders at Harlem or in Boston. Respect the willow whistle."

THE FATE OF IMPEACHERS.—The fate of impeachers in history is significant. Of the fifty-eight persons who signed the death-warrant of Charles Stuart, thirty-seven survived the Commonwealth, and lived to see the restoration. Of the thirty-seven, nine were executed, twelve imprisoned for the rest of their lives, eleven fled to escape punishment, three were pardoned or released, and the fate of two is left in doubt. The twenty-one who died before the restoration were attainted by Parliament. Cromwell was exhumed and hung; and so were several others who were the chief instigators of the regicide. All this was done, not to gratify any spirit of revenge on the part of Charles II, but in obedience to a popular demand for justice. Of the estates of the fifty-eight regicides, thirty-five were confiscated by exclusion from the indemnity bill of Charles II, one was restored by pardon, and the yearly income of the remaining one was confiscated.

THE King of Greece is the son of one king, the nephew of another, has an emperor for a father-in-law, and occupies a throne himself, and yet, whenever the weather will permit, he and his wife walk to church, thus affording an example to Americans who ought to remember that a full day of rest occasionally is as pleasant and as necessary to their coachmen as to themselves.

QUITE A SCARE.—An elephant connected with a circus which had been giving an exhibition at Allentown, Pa., last Monday week, succeeded in making his escape from his pen after the performance. He attempted to force his way into a hotel, and being unsuccessful, began cutting up shines, when his keeper came along, secured and took him back, to his quarters. His elephantship did no damage, but succeeded in frightening the typos at work in the News office almost to death.

To every man there are many, many dark hours—when he feels inclined to abandon his best enterprise; hours when his heart's dearest hopes appear delusive; hours when he feels unequal to the burden, when all his aspirations seem worthless. Let no one think that he alone has dark hours. They are the common lot of humanity.

A PUZZLER.—Suppose a man owns a skiff: he fastens the skiff to the shore with a rope made of straw; along comes a cow; cow gets into the boat; turns around and eats the rope; the skiff, thus let loose, with the cow on board, starts down stream, and in its passage is upset; the cow is drowned. Now has the man who owns the cow got to pay for the boat, or the man that owns the boat got to pay for the cow?

A DEAR KISS.—An old bachelor in New York offered a young lady a pony for a kiss. She gave him the kiss, and he then refused her the pony. She brought suit against him, and he put in a plea of "no consideration;" but the court decided that a kiss was a legal consideration, and compelled the crusty old fellow to "pony over." Served the scamp right.

A RICHMOND paper says a gentleman recently found a gold Louis d'or, valued at $14, and bearing date 1573, imbedded in the shell of a York River oyster. It is supposed to have been lost overboard from the French fleet during the siege of Yorktown.

A DR. KERNOT, of London, has recently invented a meat preserver, that keeps a whole epiece of meat, as a roast of beef, leg of mutton, an entire turkey, etc., for eighteen months, so that when cooked it is perfectly sweet and wholesome.

IN Boston, 457 dwelling houses and 24 stores are to be raised a perpendicular distance of 18 feet, and then underpinned, in carrying out a plan for filling in sixteen acres of low ground.

IN Michigan, the Constitution, including negro suffrage, is defeated by over 38,000 majority, Maine Lawism by 10,000, and biennial legislative sessions by 15,000.

A GOOD STORY ON BUTLER.

A Southern correspondent writes: There is a loose darkey about Willard's Hotel, named Tom. You can bribe Tom to do anything. The other day there was a dinner party given by a New York contractor, at which it was understood that Ben. Butler would be a guest.—Some disloyal wag, without the fear of Congress before him, got hold of Tom, feed him liberally, and put him up to a piece of outrageous and treasonable foolery.

After the plates were served the host said: "That will do, Tom; you can go." But Tom did not go. Observing that his orders were not obeyed, the contractor repeated, "I told you to go, Tom; if I want you I'll ring for you."

Still Tom hung about the door and did not retire. At last, very much worried at his contumacy, New York turned upon Ethiopia and said sternly, attracting the whole company, "I've told you twice to leave the room, and by ——, I'll be obeyed or put you out myself."

Tom approached the table humbly and replied in a subdued tone, but loud enough to be heard by all present, "If you please, sir"—with submission—"I can't go; I'm obliged to stay."

"The h—ll you are! What for?"

"Well, sah, if I must tell, I must. I axes Mars Butler's pardon, but I'm 'sponsible for de spoons. Dem spoons is silver, and I was specially set to watch 'em. I can't go sah. It's as much as my place is wuf, sah." The sequel can better be imagined than described.

NOT SO BAD AS HE THOUGHT.—The following story is told of a gallant naval officer:

Twenty or thirty years ago, when missionary enterprise was in its infancy among the islands of the South sea, Captain Summers anchored his sloop of war off one of the Marqueasa. The next morning he saw an American flag on the beach, Union down. This excited him fearfully, of course, and he sent off a boat at once to inquire into the matter. Presently the boat returned, bringing with it a grave looking missionary. The Captain's anxiety ran high. He said:

"What's the trouble out there, quick?"

"Well, I am grieved to say, sir," said the missionary, "that the natives have been interrupting our sacredotal exercises."

"No! Blast their yaller hides! I'll—what—what was it you said they had been doing?"

"It pains me, sir, to say they have been interrupting our sacredotal exercises."

"Interrupting your — your — b-ll!—Man them starboard guns! Stand by, now, to give 'em the whole battery!"

The astonished clergyman hastened to protest against such excessively rigorous measures, and finally succeeded in making the old tar understand that the natives had only been guilty of breaking up a prayer meeting.

"Oh, devil take it, man," said the Captain, "is that all? I thought you meant that they'd stopped your grog!"

A STRANGER entered a tavern, and seeing no one present but the landlord and a negro, seated himself, and entered into conversation with the negro. Shortly after he asked Sambo if he was dry, to which he received a reply in the affirmative. The stranger told him to go to the bar and take something

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
HON. HENDERSON H. LAT, of Columbia co.

THE IMPEACHMENT.—Speculation is rife in regard to the result of the impeachment trial. A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says that the Radical race for the Vice Presidential nomination seems to be a potential element in determining the impeachment case. The friends of Wade, Wilson, Colfax, Fenton and Curtin are exceedingly industrious in working up the interests of their several candidates. The Wade men are urging an immediate verdict, whilst others ask that it be deferred until after the Chicago Radical Convention. A correspondent of the New York Herald says that Senator Fessenden will vote against impeachment, and that he will carry enough Republicans with him to secure the President's acquittal. We shall see.

THE PEOPLE have read the evidence in the impeachment trial, and are convinced that the managers have no case. The Senate may convict, but the masses will decide the President not guilty. Impeachment would sound the death knell of the Radical party or of the Republic. It would be for the people to say at the ballot box which it should be. A longer continuance of Radical fanatics and demagogues in power would be nothing short of national suicide.

STEVENS'S BLASPHEMY.—Thaddeus Stevens said in the course of his speech on the impeachment trial, that Johnson's treason to the Republican party was "baser than the betrayal by Judas Iscariot, who only betrayed a single individual." An old man, tottering on the verge of the grave, who can indulge in such blasphemy, must be hardened indeed—fit only for the leadership of a party engaged in breaking up the best government the world ever saw.

MR. EVARTS compared the violent and abusive course of Butler and his fellow managers in impeachment to the practice of the Chinese, who make a great noise to frighten away their enemies, and to the explosion of two hundred and fifty tons of gunpowder at a safe distance from the walls of a fort, with the expectation of reducing it to ruins. This allusion to Butler's powder boat and its ridiculous inefficacy drew a general laugh from the auditory.

WHO HAS RUINED THE SOUTH?—There is one truth so patent that it is a proverb in a dozen languages. It is, says the New York Herald, that the man who cries "stop thief!" most lustily is most frequently the thief himself. Mr. Boutwell adopts this ruse in his argument where he accuses Mr. Johnson of having ruined the South. He endeavors to father the results of the radical policy with regard to the South upon Mr. Johnson, and to make him appear a wretch before the Senate by imputing to him the acts of the party that he has fought without hault or pause. Mr. Boutwell says "ten States of this Union are without law, without security, without safety; public order everywhere violated, public justice nowhere respected. Forty millions of the people have been rendered anxious and uncertain as to the preservation of public peace and the perpetuity of the institutions of freedom in this country." True, every sentence; but what has it got to do with the President? Surely, if anybody is to be impeached for this it is the destructive, reckless, disorganizing, partisan Congress of the United States.

THE majority for the "Constitution" and the negro ticket in South Carolina is over 30,000. At this, Forney, in his "two papers, both daily," exclaims, "Great Republican victory!" "There is something sublime," adds Forney, "in the reconstruction of the State of John C. Calhoun." True enough; it is very sublime to see a squatter from Ohio (Scott) invested with the executive duties of South Carolina; and it is equally sublime to see the big negro (Cordoza) placed in the office of Secretary of State. What are we coming to? Such are the "victories" over which Forney, who is a negro by brevet, rejoices.

WHERE WILL THEY GO?—Before the election in Chicago, a correspondent says, the Radicals in that city declared that if it went for the Democrats, the Radical National Convention "should be adjourned to some more loyal section." Chicago has gone Democratic, and it therefore becomes a question as to where the Radicals will go. All the great Atlantic cities have long since become Democratic, and now that the greatest of inland cities has deserted the rotten Radical party, where will they go? There is still one last refuge which may be pointed to where they are likely to find sympathising friends for a year longer, and that is Washington City. The Capital has been legislated into the hands of the filthy Radical negroes, who doubtless would be glad to entertain their Boston and New York friends.

GEN. CANBY says South Carolina (the "mokes," of course) has ratified "de constitushun" by 43,340 majority. He don't say how many times over the nigs voted. In North Carolina he says the majority for the "constitution" in 43 counties is 13,340, and 45 to hear from.

GENERAL MEADE says the Georgia nigs have carried "de constitushun" in that State and elected Bullock, Radical; but that there will be a white Democratic legislature.

THE Democracy everywhere throughout the State should take early and active measures to explain the Registry law to the people and make arrangements, through committees and otherwise, to qualify every citizen who is entitled to vote. Let no votes be lost through ignorance or neglect of the new requirements.

GOVERNOR ENGLISH was inaugurated at New Haven on Wednesday. The parade of local and military, was unusually fine. Democratic Governors will soon become the fashion again.

A REPUBLICAN lawyer in New Haven is credited with the remark that "the evidence against President Johnson is not enough to justify sending a vicious dog to the Reform school." True as true preaching.

SHALL the country perish in order that Radical office holders and negroes may thrive? That's the question every honest man must answer for himself.

STATE TREASURER.—Gen. Irwin entered upon his duties as State Treasurer of Pennsylvania on Monday. It is hoped that he will make a more gentlemanly officer than his immediate predecessor.

THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL.

Mr. Evarts concluded his extraordinarily clear and powerful argument on Friday, at 4 o'clock. After a short recess, Mr. Stanbery commenced. Though still in feeble health, he could not resist the high call of duty—the cause of Right and Justice demanded that his voice be raised against the improper removal of the Executive of the Nation. He entered upon a thorough review of the facts, and at 4 o'clock asked an adjournment until next day.

On Saturday he resumed, but at a quarter of 5 o'clock showed signs of great fatigue. Mr. Pendrick, who attended the counsel during the trial, then read from the printed speech to the close of the argument, when Mr. Stanbery resumed the floor, and delivered the following eloquent and impressive peroration:

Senators, it was not at all necessary for the defense of the President that in the exercise of that discretion which the law allows to him he should be put to prove that his intentions were all right. He has gone far beyond the necessities of his case. Never were good intentions and honest motives more thoroughly proved than they have been proved in this case. I repeat it, that if everything else were made out, this great exculpatory fact must absolve him from all criminal liability. And now, Senators, I have done with the law and the facts of the case. There remains for me, however, a duty to perform—one of solemn import and obligation—a duty to my client, to my former chief, to my friend.

There may be those among you, Senators, who cannot find a case of guilt against the President; there may be those among you who are not satisfied that a case for impeachment has yet arisen, but are fearful of the consequences of an acquittal. You may entertain these apprehensions that, flushed with the success of an acquittal, the President will proceed to acts of violence and revolution. Senators, you do not know or understand the man. I cannot say that you wilfully misunderstand him; for I, too, though never an extreme party man, have felt more than once in the heat of party conflicts the same bitter and unscrupulous spirit that may now animate you. The time has been when I looked upon General Jackson as the most dangerous of tyrants. Time has been when, day after day, I expected to see him inaugurate a revolution, and yet, after his administration was crowned with success and sustained by the people, I lived to see him gracefully surrender his great powers to the hands that conferred them, and under the softening influences of time I came to regard him not as a tyrant, but as one of the most honest and patriotic men.

Now listen for a moment to one who understands Andrew Johnson better than most of you, for his opportunities have been greater. When, nearly two years ago, he called me from the pursuits of my professional life to take a seat in his cabinet, I answered the call under a sense of public duty. I came here almost a stranger to him and to every member of the cabinet except Mr. Stanton. We had been friends for many years. Senators, need I tell you that all my tendencies are conservative? You, Mr. Chief Justice, who have known me for a third of a century, can bear me witness, law, not arms, is my profession. From the moment that I was honored with a seat in the cabinet of Mr. Johnson, not a step was taken, that did not come under my observation, not a word was said that escaped my attention. I regarded him closely in cabinet, and still more in private and confidential conversation. I saw him often tempted with bad advice. I knew that evil counselors were more than once around him. I observed him with the most intense anxiety, but never in word, in deed, in thought, in action, did I discover in that man anything but loyalty to the constitution and the laws. He stood firm as a rock against all temptation to abuse his own powers or to exercise those which were not conferred upon him. Steadfast and self-reliant in the midst of all difficulty, when dangers threatened, when temptations were strong, he looked only to the constitution of his country and to the people.

Yes, Senators, I have seen that man tried as few have been tried. I have seen his confidence abused. I have seen him endure day after day privations such as few men have ever been called upon to meet. No man could have met them with more sublime patience. Sooner or later, however, I knew the explosion must come. And when it did come, my only wonder was that it had been so long delayed. Yes, Senators, with all his faults, the President has been more sinned against than sinning. Fear not, then, to acquit him. The constitution of the country is as safe in his hands from violence as it was in the hands of Washington. But if, Senators, you condemn him; if you strip him of the robe of office; if you degrade him to the utmost stretch of your power, mark the prophesy: The strong arms of the people will be about him. They will find a way to raise him from any depths to which you may consign him, and we shall live to see him redeemed, and to hear the majestic voice of the people: Well done, faithful servant, you shall have your reward.

But if, Senators, as I cannot believe, but has been boldly said with almost official sanction, your votes have been canvassed and the doom of the President sealed, then let that judgment not be pronounced in this Senate chamber, just here where our Camillus, in the hour of greatest peril, single-handed, met and baffled the enemies of the republic; not here where he stood faithful among the faithless; not here where he fought the good fight for the Union and the constitution; not in this chamber, whose walls echo with that clarion voice that in the days of our greatest danger carried hope and comfort to many a desponding heart, strong as an army with banners. No, not here; seek out rather the darkest and gloomiest chamber in the subterranean recesses of the capitol, where the cheerful light of day never enters.—There erect the altar and immolate the victim.

Mr. Bingham, for the managers, closed the argument on the case, commencing on Monday and closing on Wednesday. The speech, strong only in rant, disappointed public expectation. Republicans even declaring that it damaged impeachment more than the President.

It is not likely that a verdict will be reached before next week. Opinions vary as to the result, and a number of bets have been made at Washington upon it. The impeachers are reported to be uncertain and depressed, whilst the friends of the President are more hopeful. A few days, however, will tell the whole tale—whether there are eight Republicans in the Senate honest enough to rise above party and record their solemn verdict in accordance with the law and the facts—for upon this thread now hangs the whole case.

THE RESULT.

The New York, and other journals, abound with elaborate calculations as to the final vote in the High Court of Impeachment. We fancy the following from the New York Herald comes about as near as can now be got to the truth:

All statements purporting to tell what the votes of Senators will be on the Impeachment articles are incorrect. Since the trial began all the Senators have refrained from making any reference to it and avoided all expressions of opinion. There have been two or three exceptions to the general rule, it is true, but the great body of the members have preserved a dignified silence, not even referring to the trial among their most intimate friends.

With the pressure of considerations which have been briefly noticed, the prevalence of temperate counsels and the unanswerable arguments of the President's lawyers, it is not singular that to the majority here a conviction seems impossible. The issue, however, rests with the Senate. It is not doubted here by those who have the best means of judging impartially, that fully one-third of the Radical members are convinced of the injustice of the charges, of the fatal consequences to their party of sustaining them by a vote, and that a verdict of acquittal would be amply justified by the popular voice. These men are now suffering the severest tests of their integrity they have ever experienced. Whether they will resist importunities and bravely vindicate their integrity, is the great question of moment to them and the country.

WHO HAS OBSTRUCTED RESTORATION?

The N. Y. Times is a well known as a leading Republican newspaper that what it says is justly entitled to great weight. In the following editorial it shows conclusively that the real obstacle to the restoration of the Union is and has been the Radical majority in Congress. We commend its remarks to the especial attention of all honest and conscientious Republicans:

The point most strongly pressed against President Johnson of late is, that he is "an obstacle to the pacification of the country." The Tribune brings this accusation against him,—declaring that he has resisted pacification "after a bloody and desolating war, during a long period of time, when the urgent interests of peace, and justice, and national prosperity demanded that pacification;" and this specific charge is pressed against him by the great body of the Radical Press.

Now the simplest justice compels us to say—what everybody knows—that this is a one-sided and unfair statement of the case. President Johnson contended earnestly and vigorously for a "pacification of the country," by the restoration of the Southern States, for two years, while Congress resisted and defeated it. During the two years which followed the close of the war, the main accusation against Mr. Johnson was that he was hurrying "pacification" too fast. The burden of all the Radical speeches in Congress was that the South was not ready for restoration;—that the States were not fit to be brought back into the Union;—that the people were still at heart rebels, and could not safely be trusted with self-government or with a share in the government of the nation. Congress refused even to receive the credentials of Southern members of Congress,—refused to recognize the Provisional Governments organized by the President for the purpose of paving the way to reconstruction,—refused to do anything but subject the Southern people to continued military rule.

During all this time Mr. Johnson was pressing restoration and pacification upon Congress. He insisted on its necessity, on the advantages to be derived from it, and on the obligations resting on the Government under the Constitution to bring it about as speedily as possible. And during all that two years it was Congress, and not the President, which was the "obstacle" to restoration and pacification. Congress opposed it, because it did not like the President's plan of bringing it about;—just as the President afterward opposed it because he did not like the plan of Congress. Both would have favored it if both could have had it in their own way. But as neither could have it just exactly as either wanted it, each in turn thwarted the other.

The President wanted the Union restored, and State Governments re-established, substantially under the State Constitutions which existed before secession, modified so as to meet the changes which the war had rendered necessary; and this he pressed upon Congress and the country with all the zeal, impatience and imprudence characteristic of his nature. Congress would not consent to restoration except on the basis of universal negro suffrage. This was its aim from the beginning. It resisted every attempt at reconstruction on any basis short of that. Failing to carry that at the outset, Congress contented itself with staving off reconstruction altogether, until it could carry negro suffrage. It would not allow the Southern States to be represented in Congress; it would not allow them to control their own State Governments, or to make their own constitutions and laws, until they could compel them to do it on that basis. It made itself an "obstacle"—and a very formidable and effective obstacle—to the "pacification of the country," and the restoration of the Union, so long as that point was unattained, and during all that time President Johnson was doing everything in his power (which proved to be little enough) to accomplish what he is now unfairly accused of having opposed from the beginning—namely, the restoration of peace and the Union.

We say nothing now of the comparative merits of the two plans. Whether the President was right in trying to restore the Union on his basis, or not—it is certain, at all events, that he is not chargeable with having opposed restoration," from the close of the war. He did everything in his power to favor it. He was two years ahead of Congress in point of time, in trying to bring it about. Congress never favored it, or would permit it, until its favorite policy of universal suffrage had been secured.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT.

The Manhattan (Fifth avenue) Club, as you are aware, is the leading Democratic organization in this city, the wealth and social position of most of its members imparting to it an influence and an importance to which the Tammany Hall had scarcely a claim. This club, within the few evenings past, has been attentively canvassing the probable result of the Democratic National Convention, which is to be in some sense their guests, in the course of a few weeks.

After a survey of the whole field, and with a thorough acquaintance with the feelings and wishes of the leading men of the party, the Club has come to the conclusion that it will be impossible for the convention to agree either upon Mr. Pendleton or Governor Seymour, though there will be a hot preliminary struggle by the adherents of each for the mastery.

Hancock's name, it is believed, will then be brought forward; but as there are objections to him which the Club do not believe can be overcome, he will receive a complimentary vote, and then be put aside in order that the following may be agreed to as the compromise which is finally to prevail: For President, Senator Hendricks, of Indiana. For Vice-President, Governor English, of Connecticut.

With the settled conviction that this is to be the programme, the Manhattan Club is now going to work, though it is admitted that there may be a slip up on English in favor of John T. Hoffman, of New York, if the friends of the latter can be induced to relinquish the governorship, which they are keeping in reserve for him.

In connection with this we find it stated that the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee have unanimously passed resolutions requesting the Democratic National Committee to reconsider their previous action and issue a call for the Presidential Nominating Convention to meet in New York early in June, instead of on the 4th of July, as now arranged for. It is said to be probable that a congressional caucus of all the Democratic members will shortly be called for the purpose of making the same request.

The New York Sun, of Saturday, says:

A meeting of distinguished military gentlemen, who claim to be attached to the Democratic party, was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening, for the purpose of promoting the nomination of General Hancock as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. This they regard as the only sure means of defeating Gen. Grant and securing a Democratic triumph. The chair was occupied by Major General Gordon Granger, who distinguished himself at Chicknamauga, and is at the head of the executive committee appointed by the celebrated convention which met at Cleveland in 1866. It was determined that a national convention of Democratic soldiers and sailors, excluding those who fought on the Confederate side, should be held in this city, if possible, on the same day with the regular national convention of the Democratic party. It was the unanimous opinion, however, that the fourth of July will be too late for this convention, inasmuch as General Grant will be nominated on the 20th of May, and his supporters will thus have more than six weeks start in the campaign. A committee, of which Brigadier General Halpine is the chairman, was appointed to wait upon the national executive committee of the Democratic party, to get the Democratic convention called some time about the first of June; it was also agreed that an address to the Democratic soldiers and sailors should be prepared and published, calling upon them to vote the straight ticket.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Services.—There will be preaching on the second Sabbath of May, (10th) at the Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church, at 10 o'clock, A. M., by Rev. S. H. McKown, of Princeton, N. J.

—There will be preaching at the Hunterstown Presbyterian Church, on the third Sabbath of this month, at 10 o'clock, by the Rev. S. H. McKown, of Princeton, New Jersey.

Classis.—The regular annual meeting of Zion's Classis of the Reformed Church will this year be held at East Berlin, in this county, to open this evening. The session will continue several days. A full attendance of ministers and elders is expected, though we are not advised of any specially important business likely to be brought before the Classis.

Dividends.—The Gettysburg National Bank has declared a dividend of 6 per cent. and the First National one of 4½ per cent. for the last six months. The Hanover Savings Institution has declared 10 per cent. and the Hanover Branch Railroad 5 per cent.

New Street.—A new street has been opened from North Stratton across to North Washington. It runs along the southern line of the new Preparatory grounds. We understand it is called Union street.

Post Office Appointments.—John U. Ruff has been appointed Postmaster at Green Ridge, in this county, in place of John Norbeck, who removed to Straban township, and John A. H. Rether Postmaster at Bigler, (Middletown,) this county, in place of G. W. Rex, resigned.

Accident.—On the 23d ult., a son of Mr. E. Herman, of Straban township, aged about 6 years, met with a serious accident. He had gone with his father to the woods, and while the latter was putting a log on the wagon, it slipped and rolled on the boy, crushing and breaking his leg.

More Room Needed.—The "Red Men" are enlarging their hall, on Carlisle street, the increase of membership requiring it. They intend to re-paper, paint, and carpet, &c., and when completed, will have a creditable hall.

Railroad Subscription.—By a vote of 797 for and 80 against, the people of Frederick have declared in favor of a city subscription of $250,000 to the capital stock of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad Company.

Death of an Editor.—We regret to record the death of Mr. W. V. Manikowski, one of the editors of the Hanover Citizen, which occurred at his father-in-law's residence, in that place, on Saturday afternoon week. He was a native of in Germany, and was in his 37th year. He was highly respected, and his death is generally lamented.

Injured.—On Thursday last, Mr. Frederick McIntire, of Liberty township, on his return from Gettysburg, with a load of fish, made a narrow escape from death at Bream's hill. The horses becoming unmanageable, started rapidly down the hill, upsetting the wagon, and throwing Mr. McIntire violently upon his head, with part of the load upon him. When picked up he was thought to be fatally injured. Dr. O'Neal was sent for, who applied the proper restoratives. Next day, it afforded us pleasure to learn, Mr. McIntire was able to return home, his injuries not proving as serious as was at first feared.

Gettysburg Building Association.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of Gettysburg Building Association was held in the Arbitration room on Saturday evening, there being a full turn out of the members. The annual statement submitted by the Directory showed the Association to be in a very prosperous condition. All the old officers were elected, viz:

President, E. G. Fahnestock.
Vice President, Wm. A. Duncan.
Secretary, J. F. McCreary.
Treasurer, J. A. Kitzmiller.
Managers, C. H. Buehler, J. W. C O'Neal, John Culp, of M., Wm. Chritzman, John Rupp.

It was determined by a vote of the stockholders to issue a new series of 500 shares, $250 each, the present members to have the preference in subscribing therefor. Over 300 were promptly taken.

Littlestown Building Association.—This association has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, John Spangler, Jr.
Vice President, Isaac Staub.
Treasurer, James H Colehouse.
Secretary, James A. Lefever.
Directors, John Diehl, H. S. Klein, Martin Steffy, Israel Yount, Jacob Hornberger.
Attorney, W. A. Duncan.

The association starts with fine prospects, and will prove a success. All the stock has been taken.

Jno. W. Yeatts, formerly with Duphorn & Hoffman, in this place, is now with M. M. Marple & Co., dealers in Notions and Fancy Goods, 53 North Third street, Philadelphia. Mr. Yeatts enjoys a large acquaintance, and having fine business capacity, with the confidence of the public, he cannot fail to succeed in his new place. Our merchants buying in Philadelphia should be sure to give John a call.

Col. James Gowan, the builder of the Chicago lake tunnel, has received the contract for the erection of the State capitol buildings at Springfield, Ill. The Col. lived in Gettysburg when a boy, and is known by many of our people, who will be glad to hear of his rise in the world.

Go to Soper & McCartney's Jewelry Store, on York street, if you want anything in their line. A fine assortment of the latest styles of Breast Pins, Ear Rings, Finger Rings, Sleeve Buttons, &c., just received. American and Swiss Gold and Silver Watches, Silver Plated Ware, such as Casters, Butter Knives, Butter Dishes, Fruit Baskets, Forks and Spoons, also on hand. If you don't wish to purchase yourself, go and examine the stock anyhow, that you may inform your friends where to purchase at reasonable prices. 2w

Timber Land Sale.—We would call the attention of Farmers and others, wanting Rails and Posts, to the sale of Paxton & Witherow, advertised for the 16th inst. We understand their lands abound in Chestnut and Locust, such as have not been in the market for some years. 1t

Sale of Building Lots.—This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Prof. Ehrehart will offer, at public sale, a number of valuable building lots fronting on Union and Carlisle streets, nearly opposite the new Preparatory grounds. 1t

Horses Bought and Sold, by Samuel Herbst, at his Stables, in rear of Keystone House, Gettysburg, Pa. He has also a very fine JACK, which can be seen at his stable. May 1. 2t

Town Improvements.—In a ramble around town, we notice the following improvements in progress and about to be commenced:

Baltimore Street.—The Vanderslott property, now owned by Messrs. Fahnestock, O'Neal and Duncan, has been made a three-story, with a remodeling of the front. Painters and plasterers are about finishing the house. This is a marked improvement to the street.

John Rupp is erecting a dwelling on his property, near the the southern extremity of the street. We understand it is to be a two-story frame, in cottage style. This promises to be one of the handsomest residences in the place.

The Lodge at the Gateway of the National Cemetery has been entirely remodeled and improved. The roof has been taken off and a French roof substituted. This makes the building considerably higher and vastly betters its appearance. A large and ornamental porch has been built entirely around it. Four cannon were sent here a few days ago, by the War Department, and have been placed around the base of the proposed monument in the Cemetery.

Chambersburg Street.—E. H. Minnigh's house is finished, and John Gruel's nearly so. Both are decided improvements, with an attractive city look.

Geo. H. Swope has commenced the erection of a two-story frame building, adjoining Dr. Tate.

The row of brick residences owned by Messrs. Fahnestock and Duncan, W. T. King, Wm. H. Culp and Geo. Weikert, is being re-painted and otherwise repaired.

Henry McDannell is about to build a two-story frame dwelling, near the end of the street.

C. J. Tyson's property shows considerable improvement. The house has been entirely repaired and the grounds are being laid out tastefully.

York Street.—On this street the only improvement we notice is that of Simon Codori's house. He has remodeled the front, and repaired throughout. It will look first class when finished. The building adjoining is soon to be treated to a new brick front and other additions, with a view to its use as a fresh meat store.

The new Preparatory building is being put under roof. The building stands on an elevation and presents a fine appearance; the improvement of the grounds only being necessary to make it a beautiful place.

In the neighborhood we notice the following property sales: By Prof. Ehrehart, building lots to Capt R. McCurdy, Col. Buehler, Geo. B. Monfort and Samuel F. Neely, all of whom intend building in the fall. These lots lie on the east side of Carlisle street, opposite the Preparatory building.

By Hon. M. McClean to Messrs. Duphorn and Kitzmiller, 12 acres, lying on the north side of the Preparatory grounds, at $150 an acre. They intend laying it out in building lots.

By David Sterner to Jacob Sheads, two lots on the corner of Stratton and Railroad streets, at $550 cash. Mr. S. has removed his lumber yard to this ground.

By John H. and George W. McClellan to Col. C. H. Buehler, a lot of ground, adjoining the lumber yard of the latter, for $1000 cash.

On the Mummasburg road, near the College, Geo Kitzmiller has commenced the erection of a neat two-story frame dwelling.

Washington Street.—Peter Thoru has fitted up the property on the corner of South Washington and High streets, for a bakery. The building has been enlarged by a back building, and the whole tastefully painted.

James Foster sold to Samuel Koser a lot of ground, fronting on Washington street. We understand it is Mr. Koser's intention to build a two-story brick residence thereon.

Mr. Foster also sold a half lot to Rev. Mr. Jamison, adjoining the above.

Joseph Wible is about to erect a large Warehouse on the corner of Washington and Railroad streets. The building will be used in the forwarding business.

On the same side of the street, Wm. T. Ziegler has commenced the erection of a two-story frame dwelling.

The building in the College Campus is progressing. It will be a two-story double frame house. This building will be an ornament to the College grounds, as well as to that part of the town.

East Middle Street.—Judge Ziegler's new double house is being finished.—Taste has been displayed in its erection, outside and inside, rendering it one of the best of recent improvements.

Wm. C. Strickhouser has erected a two-story frame house, near the corner of Stratton.

Levi Mumper has just finished a two-story frame back building to his residence, opposite the Methodist Church.

Stratton Street.—C. A. Miller's two-story frame house, near the Railroad, is nearly finished.

Samuel Cassatt has commenced the erection of a two-story frame house on North Stratton.

High Street.—David Bluebaugh is about completing a very neat and comfortable two-story frame dwelling on this street. The building is on the cottage order.

Mrs. Maria Wisotzkey's frame cottage, opposite the Fair Grounds, looks well.

The Agricultural Society's grounds are being greatly improved. Several hundred choice trees have been planted, so as to afford shade, but not interfere with the exhibitions. The front building, for offices, will soon be put up. A few years will serve to make this a most attractive and beautiful spot.

Breckenridge Street.—A. R. Feistel has just erected another two-story frame dwelling, adjoining his present residence. This building displays considerable taste.

John Welrich is about to erect a two-story frame building, on the lot adjoining his dwelling. From what we learn concerning it, it will be a neat and comfortable cottage.

Re-interred.—The body of General Paul J. Semmes, who fell at Gettysburg, was re-interred at Columbus, Ga., April 26, with considerable ceremony.

COL. MCCLURE has retired from the Chambersburg Repository, and is succeeded by Messrs. Jere. Cook and S. W. Hays.

Wire Tooth Hay Rakes, of best make, for sale during the season, by Wm. Wible. 1w

Where to Go.—A correspondent (on the first page) furnishes us with an interesting letter, which tourists will have reason to thank us for. The author knows whereof he writes, as he is without a doubt the most extensive traveled gentleman in the American continent and the British Provinces. The writer tells the tourists the various routes, as well as the most direct, the choice scenery which is presented along the lines, and also gives hints with regard to creature comforts at the hotels. It is a letter which all that contemplate traveling this Summer, and are as yet undecided in what direction, should read and put aside for reference.

Huber's Drug Store, (Forney's old stand,) in Baltimore street, opposite Danner & Ziegler's Store, has been thoroughly overhauled, and repaired in capital style—new shelving, handsomely painted, new jars and bottles, tastefully labelled, walls and ceiling papered, and additional gas fixtures introduced—the whole looking "clean and bright as a new pin." A large lot of fresh goods has been added, and no labor or money will be spared to make this one of the best Drug Stores in the State. The proprietor is determined to accommodate and please the public in every way—not only with the variety and superior quality of his goods, but also in the reasonableness of his prices. All the people, from town and country, are asked to give Huber's Drug Store a call. They will save money by it. 1t

Another Veto.—Capt. T. C. Norris has vetoed the high prices, and is selling Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes at prices as low as before the war. His stock is the largest and best selected that it has been our fortune to see outside of the large cities. His stock of Men's and Boy's Fur and Straw Hats for Spring and Summer is just opened, and is the largest and most complete in Adams county. Give him a call and be convinced. May 8. 2t

To Builders.—Col. C. H. Buehler has just received a very large assortment of LUMBER suitable for Building purposes, including Boards, Plank, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c. Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, White Pine and Hemlock. Builders will do well to give him a call, as his stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates.

Also constantly on hand, Blacksmith, Lime-burners' and Stove COAL, with an extensive assortment of COOKING STOVES, of the best make, Hollow-Ware, Tin-Ware, Japan-Ware, &c., which House-keepers will do well to examine. Warerooms on Carlisle street, opposite the depot. tf

The value of pure Wine in Sickness.—The chief difficulty with reliable wines has been their scarcity and exorbitant price, but this has been removed by the introduction of a pure native wine, prepared from the Port grape extensively cultivated by Mr. A. Speer of New Jersey. We understand he has submitted his wine to the test of many of our celebrated physicians, and all concur in its purity, medicinal properties, and superiority to the best Port wine. Most of them, to signify their just appreciation of its salutary effects, prescribe it in cases of debility, affections of the kidneys, and chronic complaints, requiring a tonic, sudorific or diuretic treatment.—Examiner. Druggists sell it. 1t

If any of our readers are prematurely gray, or are troubled with falling of the hair, dandruff or itching of the scalp, they have only to use Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, and their trouble will soon be over. The preparation is not only a restorer of gray hair, but one of the most elegant hair dressings we have ever seen. It also by softening and invigorating the hair, prevents premature baldness and in many cases restores hair to bald heads. [April 17. 1m

If you feel Debilitated and "worn out," and want something to tone-up the system, instead of using stimulants, take Dr. H. Anders' Iodine Water, a most powerful vitalizing agent and restorative. It permeates the entire system, and its effect is permanent. 1t

A Household Word.—The best, the only reliable, the cheapest. Try it. Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) My wife and children prefer it. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. 1m

MURDER OF A WHOLE FAMILY.—The Vicksburg Times of the 23d ult. gives the details of a horrible murder of a whole family by the name of Keenan, at Omega Landing, Mississippi. The man was shot in the road for the purpose of plundering him, but not finding money upon his person, the fiends then went to his house and killed his wife and two children. The murderers proved to be two negroes, who were arrested, and confessed their deeds, and being committed for trial, and on their way to jail, were taken from the sheriff's hands by a band of negroes and burned on the spot for their crimes.

CINCINNATI, May 3.—A dispatch to the Commercial from Delaware, Indiana, says that on Sunday three boys, sons of Henry Foge, were in a field, when a difficulty arose between them, and the oldest mashed the heads of the younger brothers with an axe, killing one outright and leaving the other for dead. On the approach of the father the eldest boy ran to the barn and hung himself. He was found dead.

EARLY on Saturday morning, an express messenger on one of the cars of the New York Central Railroad was gagged and bound by two men, who entered the car as the train passed Garrison. The robbers then secured about $10,000, and succeeded in leaving the car, upon its arrival in the city, before the situation of the messenger was discovered.

THE propeller Gov. Cushman exploded a boiler whilst running out of the creek at Buffalo, on Saturday morning, by which eleven persons were killed and three wounded.

MANAGER BINGHAM is more truthful than he thinks, or intends, when he pronounces the impeachment performance a "trial without parallel in the history of nations." It is so indeed.

ELECTION AT WESTMINSTER, MD.—At the municipal election held at Westminster, Carroll county, on Monday, the Democratic Conservative ticket was elected by an average majority of ten, being a gain since last year of forty.

BUTLER'S speeches before the "high court of impeachment" are like his military exploits—very windy, but amounting to nothing.

THE New York Times says that Senator Fessenden has declared openly that "he will not perjure himself to please party friends."

GALUSHA A. GROW, a broken down Abolitionist, but still a rampant negro suffrage advocate, is the Chairman of the Radical State Committee.

THE Virginia election so-called cannot be held until the Bump provides the necessary greenbacks.

Boils.
Like the volcano, Boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. To remove the cause of such suffering it is only necessary to vitalize the Blood by supplying it with its Life Element, IRON.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP,
(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron) will do this effectually, and give strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM REV. RICHARD S. ROSS, OF BOLTON, MASS.
"For years I was a sufferer from Boils, so that my life became wearisome through their frequent and persistent recurrence: finally a carbuncle formed in the small of my back. During its progress a large piece of decomposed flesh went away day by day in great wasps, and the prostration and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recovered from this attack two smaller ones broke out in the right side, and I was again threatened with a recurrence of the sufferings to which had so long been subjected. It was at this time that I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have had nothing of the kind. For years I was one of the greatest sufferers, and the Peruvian Syrup, truly, is the only remedy, with a kind and intuitive sense, went directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."

Its Effect is Miraculous.
HALL'S VEGETABLE
SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.
It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brush, dry and wiry hair into Beautiful Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.
The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.
The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.
Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.
See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

The Gettysburg Compiler.

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1868.

CIRCULATE THE TRUTH!

Let it be borne in mind that any one of our present subscribers sending in the names of four new subscribers, with the cash in advance ($8 for the four,) will receive a credit of one year's subscription on his own account—in other words, for each new subscriber sent in, accompanied by the cash, a PREMIUM OF FIFTY CENTS is allowed as a credit on present subscriptions. A number of subscribers have already paid themselves ahead in this way, and many others could do the same with very little effort. Remember, that the most important Presidential contest in our history is approaching, and that a proper enlightenment of the masses as to Radical negroism, corruption and tyranny, will surely defeat that party at the polls. The Democratic newspapers will do this, if properly circulated. The COMPILER, always in the front line of duty, will be found as earnest and faithful as ever. Democrats and Conservatives, help to spread its influence in THE CAUSE OF THE PEOPLE.

The Compiler for the Campaign!
WHITE MEN, TO THE RESCUE!

In order to place the COMPILER within the means of every voter in the county, we have concluded to offer it for the campaign—from this time until after the Presidential election, in November—at the following low rates:

Single Subscribers,.. .....$1 00 each.
Ten copies, ...$8 00 or 80 cents " "
Twenty copies,....15 00 or 75 " "

This will barely cover the cost of white paper, and we must therefore ask payment in advance in all cases. The paper will be sent immediately upon receipt of order, either through the mail or otherwise.

To House-Keepers.—Young folks and others, who are preparing to go to house-keeping this spring, will do well to make a call at Col. C. H. BUEHLER'S Ware-rooms, near the Depot, Gettysburg, Pa., where, in addition to a large variety of the most approved COOKING STOVES, Sitting Room and Chamber Stoves, can be found a very large assortment of every kind of TIN-WARE, Hollow-Ware, Japan Ware, Toilet and Chamber Sets, Bread and Spice Boxes, Tea and Coffee Canisters, Waiters, Coffee Mills, Water Coolers, Spittoons, Pudding Moulds, Flour Sieves, Candle Sticks, Smoothing Irons, Egg Beaters, Fruit Cans, Jelly Moulds, and a thousand other articles in the house-keeping line—all of which will be sold at lowest cash prices. Call and examine. tf

CHICAGO, ILL., May 4.—At Shanghai, Ill., (near Galesburg,) fourteen houses were blown down by a tornado yesterday and two churches unroofed. Four persons were killed and forty injured, a number of whom it is feared will die.

The Auditors, in submitting the above statement as to the condition of the Bounty Fund of Cumberland township, report that the apparently large amount of exonerations granted on Duplicates of 1865 and 1866, was occasioned by assessing a large number of persons who were exempt by reason of service in the army. They would also report that the suit brought by the township for the recovery of money paid for men never credited to the township has been decided in favor of the township. If the money can now be made it will be $1,500 (less expenses of suit) towards reducing still further the township liabilities.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates.

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the swinging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

REAPERS & MOWERS.

DODGES' PATENT
Ohio and Buckeye,
E. BALL & COMPANY'S
World's Reaper and Mower,

HAVING for a considerable experience in the sale of Reaping and Mowing Machines in the last few years, I have made it a point to offer no machine to the farmers that will not thoroughly test to their entire satisfaction, and since I have declined the agency for all but what I regard the very best in the market. I now offer to the farmer the coming season, two of what I consider the best machines now in use. Last year I sold thirty-five of the OHIO & BUCKEYE patent, which have given entire satisfaction. No machine has been returned, neither has there been any difficulty with any one to whom they were sold—all paying for their machine promptly. Certificates from those who purchased could be presented, but I deem it unnecessary, for they would be but a repetition of the above. I will be found at all times ready to wait on those who purchased and have been using the machine with me.

James Marshall,
Frederick Pehr,
Henry Weikert,
Henry Rutt.

This machine has been awarded medals and first Premiums by the Pennsylvania State and New York State Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country, including the Adams County Fairs, having received first and Premium at Hanoverville in the fall of '66, and at Gettysburg in 1867, as the best on exhibition.

This machine has met with the most complete success in every section it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over all others which have heretofore ranked as first-class. In completeness, lightness of draft, excellence and elegance of workmanship and finish, combined with great strength and adaptation to all kinds of work, it will surpass any machine heretofore offered to the farmer. The subscriber, keeping this machine has taken especial pains, and which the last season, and is warranted to give general satisfaction or no sale.

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND REAPER.

This is an entirely new machine, but judging from the construction and the testimonials here received, it will be the leading machine. The gearing is cut out of solid iron, making every wheel and cog of strong purpose, and running as true as a clock, which makes the machine much lighter of draft, and no cutting of cogs or gears. The gearing is all close and in a tight case, the same as a watch, which prevents getting wheat, dirt or grass, and instead of exerting power in that is calculated to prove injurious to the machinery. To oil, you simply open the lid when all the gearing is exposed, and can be readily oiled. The bars are all encased the same as the gearing and cut in the same way, and when one tightens down, the pressure of wearing is done, as is the case with other machines. The Company do not hesitate in recommending this machine, with proper care, will last a man a lifetime, which is a matter every farmer should take into consideration, for buying at the present high prices of machines.

TESTIMONY OF REV. JACOB D. TROSTLE.

LINGANORE, Frederick co., Md., April 22, 1868.

MR. WM. A. BELL—Dear Sir: I purchased one of E. Ball's WORLDS REAPERS, and used it last harvest in cutting my own grain and grass and some of my neighbors', and have both times been highly pleased with it. I consider it as a combined machine than any I have ever used, although I have tried some seven or eight other machines. I regard it the best machine in market, and do not hesitate to recommend it as such to any person wanting a first-class machine.

Yours, &c., J. D. TROSTLE.

I can also furnish BALL & OHIO to those wishing that machine.

I can furnish these machines to sell farmers, and will sell as single machines or Combined Machines as Mowers, Self-rakes, Hand-rakes, Dropper—and Dropper and Hand-rake combined. I am also agent for ROBB'S DROPPER, which can be attached to any make of machine. Those having old machines, and wishing to exchange for one can be accommodated by sending in their orders early and naming the kind of machine to which they wish them to be attached. Price to suit.

Sample machine can be seen at my residence, one of the subscriber, two miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road, or at the Warehouse of Bigham & Co., Gettysburg, Pa.

I also keep on hand

WHITMAN'S HAY RAKES, SELF PLOUGHS, FEED CUTTERS AND FARMING IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Farmers would do well to examine my machines before buying elsewhere, as I keep nothing but the best.

Extra constantly on hand, and I have made arrangements to have repairing done in the best possible manner at short notice and moderate charges.

RYE FLOUR FOR BREAD.

Mr. William Ray Smee, writing in the London Morning Star, directs attention to the use of rye bread on the score of cheapness. The writer adverts to the fact that "bread made from rye is eaten by all ranks of society in the northeast of Europe, and is scarcely ever absent from the tables of the noble and wealthy, because two sorts of bread are considered more wholesome and nourishing than the exclusive use of one." Of the two kinds of bread, the rye and the finest wheaten, made at the Vienna bakery of the Paris Exhibition, and served at the adjoining lager-beer drinking hall, the rye bread was largely taken in preference. The case of a German is cited, who in his own country used to eat a slice of wheaten bread and a slice of rye bread together, and who, on coming to reside in England, suffered much in health from the entire use of wheaten bread.

To be somewhat more specific than Mr. Smee in relation to the use of rye bread by the people of the northeast of Europe, we would add, that rye is the chief staple for farinaceous food of Sweden, Northern Russia and the southern part of Norway, also Germany and the larger part of France. It is, indeed, said to nourish a more numerous population than wheat itself. In France and Germany it is usual to eat the bread of the flour of the two grains mixed in nearly equal proportions, and called metail. Rye flour contains some gluten or nitrogenous element, and also starch and sugar. The proportion of the former in rye to that in wheat has been estimated as five to nineteen. Rye may be kept for a length of time without losing its flavor or being otherwise changed; and hence the country people in France only bake every eight or ten days. The Swedish peasantry carry their economy of labor and fuel still further, in baking their rye cakes only twice in the year.

TOMATOES.—Tomato plants may now be transplanted from the hot-bed at any time. They should be set firmly in the soil, which should be well-manured; and for the first week or two, should the weather be warm, be protected against the sun during four hours of the day. If the nights be cool or frost threatened they should be covered in some way—old newspapers, with stones or clods at the corners, are as good as anything—for the first two weeks. Mulching with grass and frequent stirring of the soil have an assuring effect in producing an abundant crop.

Some people allow the vines to run over the ground entirely, and we admit that they will produce as greatly this way as perhaps any other, but, coming in contact with the soil, their flavor is destroyed and they become insipid and worthless. Our mode is to "bush" them as we do peas, only more extensively, and we have the best of crops. The expense of trellises and frame-work, which amateur gardeners indulge in, is just so much money thrown away.

PLANTING LIMA BEANS.—It is not generally known, or if known practiced by few, that Lima beans, so liable to rot after planting in a wet spell, can be protected against this danger by simply greasing them well before planting. It should be done thoroughly, and unless the season be extremely wet it will prove a sure remedy. A few years ago, while a neighbor had to plant his bed a third time ours was wholly uninjured. This is a hint worth acting upon. It may insure many a crop of early Lima, which everybody admits is the "bean of beans."

PRUNING ROSES.—The past winter was very hard upon the rose bushes, especially where they were lightly strawed-up. In pruning them it should be done with a liberal hand. There need be no fear of injury. Nothing stands pruning better than the rose, and we think it is a benefit to it to be killed down to the ground every two or three years! Therefore, whenever any considerable dead portion of the wood appears, cut nearly or quite down to the ground and it will give vigor to the root, and new shoots, and the flowers will be much finer.

LOOK TO YOUR CELLARS.—Now is the time to clean up the cellars, as it is a work that should not be left until warm weather is upon us. By that time any vegetable matter left remaining will decompose and produce an atmosphere most deleterious to health. The meat stands should be emptied upon the asparagus beds or manure heap, and must not be thrown anywhere else, as the brine will kill even trees as thick as an arm if applied in large quantities. The cellar should then be thoroughly whitewashed, and burnished up nice enough to dine in. A filthy cellar is an abomination that no housekeeper who has any claim to tidiness will allow to remain an hour longer than can be helped. The health of the entire family may be seriously endangered by it, and we have no doubt that in many instances fevers have resulted from unwarrantable neglect in this matter.

BOILING PEAS FOR PLANTING.—It is stated on good authority—we have never tried it—that by putting peas into boiling water for about one minute before planting, the crop produced will be free from the bug. This seems to be an easy and plausible remedy; the par-boiling of the seed will also doubtless help germination.

CHICKEN CHOLERA.—This disease is raging on Beaver creek and in the neighborhood of Mount Pleasant, Md. In some instances, we learn, farmers have lost their entire stock of poultry—chickens, geese, ducks, turkeys, etc. The Messrs. Whitmores, Funks, Newcomers, and others, are among the sufferers.—Boonsboro' (Md.) Odd Fellow.

DELICATE PUDDING.—One quart of milk; while boiling stir in one pint of flour after it is sifted, six eggs, six tablespoonfuls of white sugar, one spoonful of butter, grated peel and juice of two lemons. All the ingredients must be well beaten together before they are stirred into the milk; stir one way, without stopping, till it has boiled for a minute or two; take it off and turn into your pudding dish. It is to be eaten cold; with sugar and cream if you like.

A HORSE, 19 hands high and weighing 2,000 pounds, is to be seen in a safe truck team in New York city. He was foaled in 1862, in Winchester county, of Canadian parents. He is said to be the largest horse in America.

TO KILL FLEAS.—Place the ferocious animal on a smooth board and pen him in with a hedge of shoemaker's wax.—Then as soon as he becomes quiet, commence reading to him the doings of Congress, and in five minutes he will burst with indignation.

GEN. "BOB" SCHENCK, famous for the Vienna massacre, has recently been "completely cleaned out at several friendly games of poker" in Washington.

PRICE REDUCED TO $56.00 PER TON.

THE USE OF THIS GUANO in Maryland for several years for Corn, Tobacco and other Spring Crops, as well as for Wheat, has established its excellence. It possesses all the quickness of Peruvian Guano, with permanent qualities not possessed by that article.

Experience has shown that this Guano ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super Phosphates. It also ripens Tobacco earlier, and produces a crop of better quality. The Pacific Guano Company has conformed its above reduction in consequence of the depressed condition of the farming interests in the Southern States. Constantly on hand, for sale or exchange the very best qualities of Super, Extra and Family FLOUR, also Rye, CORN and Buckwheat Flour, with every variety of Chop and offal of wheat.

Having a SAW MILL attached, he is prepared to saw all kinds of lumber, at the shortest notice. A Farmer in need of lumber and flour, can put a log upon his wagon, throw a few bushels of wheat on the top, have the wheat exchanged for flour and the lumber sawed, thus saving a double trip—and all because of the perfect machinery now employed in these mills.

Having the best of workmen, he will be able to please everybody. Thankful for past favors, he hopes for a continuance of the same.
